

ACS PUBLICATIONS IS MADE FOR MOBILE

PAIR YOUR LAPTOPS, TABLETS, AND SMARTPHONES
FOR OFF-CAMPUS ACCESS

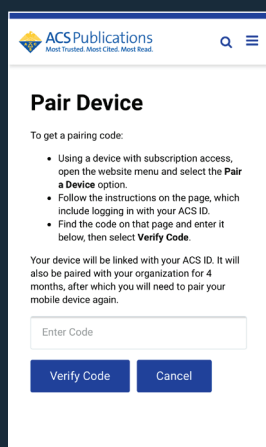

1

To access full-text articles from journals that have been licensed by your institution's library, simply visit pubs.acs.org from your mobile device while on an authenticated institutional wi-fi network.

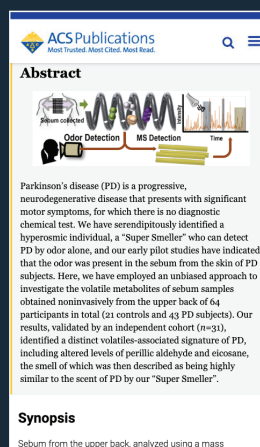

2

Open the website menu in the upper right-hand corner of the browser and select the Pair a Device option.

3

Follow the instructions on the page, which include logging in with your ACS ID and retrieving a six digit code. Return to the Device Pairing page to enter it and select Verify Code.

4

Your device will be linked with your ACS ID. It will also be paired with your organization for 4 months, after which you will need to pair your mobile device again.
